Can we change the 90-day designation to a "Bird and Habitat Conservation Area." That is how the signs on the fence read.

The area in question, "the south bank of Lake Houma along North Hollywood Rd from St Louis Canal Road and Williams Avenue" is not in the city limits. What do you think about using the language below for a period of 90 days. I know there is duck hunting in Lake Houmas, but I think it is over. So 90 days should not interfere with that.

What do you think, Christa? We could also do some kind of proclamation to present to the Bird Watching Society to create more publicity.
